

2021-22 College of Science Graduate Student Travel Award

Application Submission Deadline: 5:00 p.m., January 24, 2022

For travel between January 1, 2022 and June 30, 2022

Prerequisites:

- Must be a full-time PhD student within a Department in the College of Science.
- Must be making an oral or poster presentation at a virtual (US or international) or in-person (international) conference. Due to the continued impact of the pandemic, we will consider requests to cover registration fee for both US and international virtual conferences (up to $300 per award) or registration/travel costs for an in-person international conference (up to $800 per award – travel must be accomplished following the Protect Purdue guidelines).

Priority will be given to:

- Participation in a virtual or in-person international conference to make an oral presentation
- Participation in an interdisciplinary conference
- Students who have passed their prelims

To apply, please send electronically as one file:

- CV (2 page limit)
- Brief summary of research (1 page limit)
- Brief statement of purpose for attending conference specifying whether your presentation is oral or poster
- Provide web link to conference
- Letter of support from research advisor
